

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known. Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tania or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, totters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Damask Lip Salve—Bestorative Powder for the teeth and gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness which, suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskillful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in &c.

Hamilton's Elixir for Coughs, Colds &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

LINES.

Written while at anchor in Kingston harbor, lake Ontario—on hearing from several Canadian Boats entering from the St. Lawrence, their usual songs.

HARK! o'er the lake's unruffled wave,
A distant, solemn chant is sped:
Is it some requiem at the grave?
Some last kind honor to the dead?
'Tis silent all—again begun;
It is the wearied boatman's lay,
That hails alike the rising sun,
And his last, soft, departing ray.

Forth from yon island's dusky side,
The train of bateaux now appear,
And onward as they slowly glide,
More loud their chorus greets the ear.
But ah! the charm that distance gave,
When first in solemn sounds their song
Crept softly o'er the limpid wave,
Is lost in notes full loud and strong.

"Row, brothers, row," with songs of joy,
For now in view a port appears;
No rapids here our course annoy,
No hidden rocks excite our fears.
Be this sweet night to slumber giv'n,
And when the morning lights the wave,
We'll give our matin songs to heav'n,
Our course to bless, our lives to save.

To the Editor of the Monthly Magazine.

SIR—The following pathetic Narrative, is extracted from "The History of the Inquisition, abridged from the elaborate work of Philip Limborch;" a work of which the great John Locke said, "that it was fit to be translated into the vulgar language of every nation, that all might understand the anti-christian practices of that execrable court."

An account of the proceedings of the Court of Inquisition of Lisbon against Elizabeth Vasconcellos, an English woman.

Elizabeth Vasconcellos, now in the city of Lisbon, doth on the 10th of December, Anno. 1709, in the presence of John Milner, Esq. her Majesty's Consul General, and Joseph Willocks, Minister of the English Factory at Lisbon, declare and testify, that she was born at Arlington, in the county of Devon, and a daughter of John Chester, Esq.; bred up in the Church of England; and in the eleventh year of her age, her uncle David Morgan, of Cork, intending to go and settle in Jamaica, as a physician, by her father's consent, he having several children, took her with him to provide for her.

In 1706, they went in an English ship, and near the Island, they were attacked by two Turkish ships; in the fight, her uncle was killed, but the ship got clear into Madeira, and she, though left destitute, was entertained by Mr. Bedford, a merchant, with whom, and other English, she lived as a servant till 1696: in that year she was married by the chaplain of an English man of war, to Cordoza de Vasconcellos, a physician of that Island, and lived with him eight years, and never in the least conformed to the Romish Church.

In 1704, her husband having gone on a voyage to Brazil, she fell dangerously ill, and being light-headed, the priest gave her the sacrament, as she was told afterwards, for she remembered nothing of it. It pleased God she recovered, and then they told her she had changed her religion and must conform to the Romish Church, which she denied, and refused to conform, and thereupon, by the Bishop of that Island, she was imprisoned nine months, and then sent prisoner to the Inquisition at Lisbon, wheresh she arrived 19th of December, 1705. The Secretary of the house took her effects, in all above 500l. sterling; she was then sworn that that was all she was worth: and then she was put into a strait dark room, about five feet square, and there kept nine months and 15 days. That the first nine days, she had only bread and water, and a wet straw bed to lie on.—On the ninth day, being examined, she owned herself a Protestant, and would so continue; she was to a she had conformed to the Romish Church, and not persist in it or burn; she was remanded to her room, and after a month's time, brought out again, and persisting in her answer as to religion, they bound her hands behind her, stripped her back naked, and lashed her with a whip of knotted cords a considerable time, and told her afterwards, that she must kneel down to the court, and give thanks for their merciful usage of her, which she positively refused to do.

After fifteen days, she was again brought forth and examined; and a crucifix being set before her, she was commanded to bow down to it, and worship it, which she refused to do; they told her that she must expect to be condemned to the flames, and burnt with the Jews, at the next auto de fe, which was nigh at hand. Upon this, she was remanded to her prison again for thirty days; and being then brought out, a red hot iron was got ready, and brought to her in a chafing dish of burning coals; and her breast being laid open, the executioner, with one end of the red hot iron, burnt her to the bone in three several places, on the right side, one hard by the other; and then sent her to her prison, without any plaster, or other application, to heal the sores, which were very painful to her.

A month after this, she had another severe whipping, as before, and in the beginning of August, she was brought before the table, a great number of of inquisitors being present, and was questioned whether she would profess the Romish Religion or burn? She replied, she had always been a protestant, and was a subject of the Queen of England, who was able to protect her, and she doubted not would do it, were her condition known to the English residing in Lisbon; but as she knew nothing of that, her resolution was to continue a protestant, though she were to burn for it. To this they answered, that her being the Queen of England's subject signified nothing in the dominions of the King of Portugal; that the English residing in Lisbon were heretics, and would be damned; and that it was the mercy of that tribunal to endeavour to rescue her out of the flames of hell; but if her resolution were to burn, rather than profess the Romish Religion, they would give her a trial of it before hand. Accordingly the officers were ordered to seat her in a fixed chair, and to bind her arms and her legs, that she could make no resistance nor motion; and the physician being placed by her to direct the court how far they might torture her, without hazard of her life, her left foot was made bare, and an iron slipper, red hot, being immediately bro't in, her foot was fastened into it, which continued on burning her to the bone till such time as, by extremity of the pain, she fainted away, and the physician declaring her life was in danger, they took it off, and ordered her again to prison.

On the 19th of August, she was again brought out, and whipped after a cruel manner, and her back was all over torn; and being threatened with more and greater tortures, and, on the other hand, being promised to be set at liberty, if she would subscribe such a paper as they would give her, though she could have undergone death, yet not being able to endure a life of so much misery, she consented to subscribe as they would have her; and accordingly, as they directed, wrote at the bottom of a large paper, which contained, she knew not what; they then advised her to avoid the company of all English heretics; and restoring to her nothing of all the plate, goods or money, she brought in with her, and engaging her by oath to keep secret all that had been done to her, turned her out of doors, destitute of all relief, but what she received from the help and compassion of charitable christians.

The above said Elizabeth Vasconcellos did solemnly affirm and declare the above written deposition to be true, the day and year above written.

JOHN MILNER.

JOSEPH WILLOCKS.

Lisbon, Jan. 7, 1707, N. S.

A copy examined from the original, by

The above unholy tribunal and cruel piece of legitimacy, is restored, with all its horrors and ramifications, in the dominions of our worthy ally, the King of Spain, by a decree dated in July, 1814.

A parson having married a Quaker, demanded five shillings as his due.—How dost thou prove from scripture, said the Quaker, that thou oughtest to have from me such a share of earthly manum? Why, replied the parson, I take it for granted, that the woman you have just been married to is of good character; and Solomon, in his Proverbs, observes, that a virtuous woman is a crown to her husband. The Quaker paid the money.

Alexandria, Sept. 2, 1817.

Major Wells, editor of a newspaper at Portsmouth, Virginia, was killed a few days since, by a negro, with a blow from a loaded stick.

NEW-YORK, August 28.

The U. S. frigate Congress, arrived at Cape Henry on the 30th ult. last from Port au-Prince, and sailed on the 3d instant, for the same port, with Mr. Taylor, our agent, on board. On her arrival at Port au-Prince, the despatches which were sent out from this country were to be opened, and there is no doubt the claims of our government would be freely granted.

Captain Dame, of the ship Henderson, informs us, that it was reported at St. Ubes, when he sailed, that three Portuguese Indiamen, belonging to Lisbon, had been captured by the Patriot privateers from Buenos Ayres; and it was also stated, that one of the privateers was fitted out at Baltimore about three months previous.

Captain Dame was boarded the 27th of June, at midnight, by a man of war, supposed to be a Turk, from the crew being dressed in a Turkish style, about 15 miles west of the Rock of Lisbon. ibid.

Bank of Newfoundland.—Capt Leslie, of the ship Persia, arrived here yesterday, informs us, that he has ascertained, by repeated observations, that the Grand Bank of Newfoundland, in latitude about 45° 18' N. is only two degrees broad, instead of four, as laid down in most charts. The eastern edge, in that parallel, being in longitude about 49° 12' W. West, and the western in about 51° 12' W.

The Old Serpent Caught!—The Portsmouth Oracle of the 25d ult. says, "Last evening was committed to prison, John Smith Reed, on a charge of forgery bro't by the Rev. Nathan Parker.—The inhabitants of this town have for the last month been the victims of Reed's villany in offering false orders for goods and money; a particular description of which we shall hereafter give."

BALTIMORE, Aug. 30.

It is stated in the Savannah papers, that for the last fortnight, the town had been uncommonly healthy. Few new cases of sickness had occurred, & of those that happened in the early part of July, many had happily terminated. This information is contradictory to the reports in circulation, of the unhealthiness of that place, and removes the uneasiness entertained by those who have friends there.

A fatal rencontre took place at Savannah on the 17th instant, between Mr. O'Driscoll and Mr. Edwards, in which the former gentleman was killed and the latter badly wounded. It is stated that in their anxiety to effect this murderous business, they had a boy & horse drowned on their way from Charleston.

Mr. O'Driscoll, was the only son of Dr. O'Driscoll, of Charleston, and in the 24th year of his age. He is represented as having been a gentleman of superior acquirements, and of the most engaging and affectionate disposition; that he made every effort consistent with a man of honor, to obliterate the cause of offence, and that accident alone prevented the reconciliation. The deceased has left a young wife in the most interesting situation. ibid.

The United States' brig Jones, which conveyed the president to Niagara, returned to Sacket's Harbor in company with the Lady of the Lake, on the 17th instant. The Sacket's Harbor Gazette of the 19th states that on the arrival of the president at Niagara, the British officers at Fort George sent over a polite message, stating that, should it concur with the wishes of the president, they would do themselves the honor to wait upon him. To this message the president replied, that being anxious to facilitate the tour of observation, which had been so long protracted, he should proceed immediately to Buffalo, and could not accept their polite invitation. The president, it is added, remained but one hour at Niagara. [N. Y. Com. Adver.

FETE CHAMPETRE.
On Monday evening, the 25th inst. a magnificent ball was given by his excellency Hyde de Neuville, the French ambassador, at his seat near Brunswick, New-Jersey, in honor of the birth day of the king.

The company consisted of about three hundred ladies and gentlemen, and the toute ensemble was highly imposing. The evening was hailed by a prodigal display of elegant fire works, and at intervals they were continued with great brilliancy. About nine o'clock the dancing commenced in a suite of rooms on the lower floor, and continued until twelve o'clock, when the supper table was graced by 150 ladies, comprising the belles of the provincial towns of West-Jersey, and many of the accomplished ladies of New-York. On the top of the mansion house the fleur de lis was conspicuous by the blaze of light emitted from the innumerable lamps which surrounded it. The extensive grounds about the house were tastefully illuminated, and nothing that could contribute to give elegance or pleasure to the scene was omitted.

Among the distinguished guests that honored the minister and his lady with their company, were the governor of New-Jersey and lady, the Portuguese and Spanish ambassadors, the French consul general, and Mr. Le Forrest and lady, the consul for Baltimore.

The fascination of the whole was increased by the serenity of the weather, and the polished refinement of the host and hostess gave a brilliancy to the entertainment that cannot be described.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.
By the arrival yesterday of the fast sailing ships Lucies, captain Roscoe, and Courier, captain Bowne, we received London papers of the 18th July, and advices from Liverpool of the 19th. Through the hands of our commercial friends we have also been politely furnished with the latest letters and papers brought by the above arrivals.

Extract of a letter, dated Liverpool, July 19.

"We have experienced another brisk week for cotton—the total sales amount to about 15,000 packages. At a general advance of 4 to 5 per cent. with the exception of Sea Islands, which have experienced but little change. The dealers and consumers have been the principal buyers. About 3,000 bags may have been taken by speculators. Our market closes steadily.—Uplands 17½ a 20½; Orleans 19 a 22 and 2½; Sea Islands 2s 1d a 2s 3d and 2s 6d per lb.

"The weather now regulates materially our corn market. It is now fine, and the market is lower. Of 1,000 bush. of New-York flour, by auction, 300 bbls. sold at 54s 9d a 55s per bbl. and the remainder withdrawn. We quote wheat 15 a 16s per 70 lbs.—rice at 31 a 35s per cwt.

"There is little doing in tobacco—of the two our market is lowering. Virginia leaf 6d a 10s, and stemmed 9 a 11d per lb. Pot ashes are also lowering, in consequence of supplies beginning to arrive from Canada. We quote New-York at 52 a 55s; Boston 55 a 54; and pearls, less demanded, at 61 a 65s per cwt. Tar improves. We quote 15s 6d a 16- 6d per bbl. Turpentine steady at 15 a 15s per cwt. Quercitron bark lower—we quote New-York 16 a 19—Philadelphia 18 a 21s per cwt. Old flaxseed at 56 a 60- per bbl. Staves are less demanded, and somewhat lower."

Liverpool, July 19.

"Flour is rapidly declining. Sales have been made to-day at 54s 9d a 56s sweet—46 a 48s sour. Rice rather looking up—at present currency 30 a 34s. Cotton very animated, and gradually advancing—14-000 bales have been sold this week to speculators and the trade.—Upland, Geo. 1s 6d a 1s 8½d; New-Orleans 1s 8d a 1s 11d; Sea Island 2 a 2s 8d. Tobacco drooping, and almost nominal in price. Pot ashes dull, at 50 a 54s; pearls firm at 65 a 65s."

The emperor of Russia has sent to England four young Russians, to be instructed in the new method of teaching, that they may be put at the head of seminaries.

The Paris papers contain accounts from Algiers, stating the dey was at war with the bey of Tunis, and with the insurgents of Boua, where some revolt had taken place.

A lever of the most malignant description prevails amongst the inhabitants of the city of Cork. A number of houses for the reception of the sick had been opened in various parts of the city.

Plague at Algiers.—A letter from Gibraltar, dated June 18, received at Lloyd's, London, says, intelligence has been received from Algiers, stating that many are sick in that place. People who were all day in their shops, in good health, when they retire home at night, after supper, make a convulsive cry and remain dead. Moors walking in the streets suddenly die. It is said to be the plague.

From every part of Germany, tidings have been received of the fall in prices of corn. The Diet has decided that from the 1st of October next the transit of corn shall be free throughout all Germany. Dull markets, 4th July, were dull, and prices of every kind gave way. Little was done in flour—American 80s.—New potatoes were coming in abundantly, and selling from 1½ to 2½ per lb.

The London Times of the 14th July states, that the "American squadron, commanded by com. Chauncey, which had been in the harbor of Marseilles, arrived off Leghorn the 21st ult. It consists of the Washington, of 86 guns and 780 men, and two frigates; the United States, of 44 guns and 440 men, and the Constellation, of 56 guns and 350 men."

ANGUSTA. (Geo.) FEB. 4.

Angusta is situated on the left bank of the Savannah river, as you ascend it, about 170 miles from its mouth, and about 15 miles below the commencement of the hilly country. It has a very extensive trade with the interior of Georgia, and the adjacent states. Cotton and tobacco are the two great leading commodities brought to this market, the avails of which are laid out for the various articles of necessity and luxury which the shops afford. These productions are carried down the river in boats of extraordinary burden. Some of them, with a draft of three feet water, will carry from five to seven hundred bales of cotton.

The town is principally built on three or four streets, running parallel with the river, and intersected with a number of cross-streets and alleys. The main streets are broad and spacious, lined on each side with neat and handsome houses. Augusta contains about 20,000 inhabitants, chiefly from the middle and eastern states, or natives of the old countries. They are agreeable and industrious people, but that anxiety to acquire wealth, which all adventurers possess, is too visible among them.

The southern parts of Georgia are settling with great rapidity; and the lands on the waters of the Apocce and Ocmulgee are said to be remarkably fertile. I regret that I have not time to visit Milledgeville, the capital of the state, and become more intimately acquainted with that section of Georgia. Settlers are every day passing through Augusta, moving on to the Alabama, and the spirit of adventure is entirely directed to that quarter. The means of subsistence is said to be nearly exhausted, and families must await those who are travelling thither.

The planters of the south are fast increasing in wealth; cotton which will yield a profit at 12 cents is now bringing 24. Hence the attention of the people turned towards planting; and this increases the demand for slaves. Large numbers of these wretches are every day introduced into Georgia, from N. C. and Virginia. There is this moment a camp on the opposite side of the river; a sale of 10 has been effected, I am told, at 650 dollars per head. No more atrocious traffic than this in human flesh ever existed; it cannot fail to strike the spectator with horror, till, after having long been a witness to the unmingled misery, he gradually feels less pity for the sufferers, and at length becomes completely hardened, and unsusceptible of every compassionate emotion.—Adieu. LONDON JULY 8.—Mr. Ponsoby.—It is probable that our readers are prepared for the intelligence we have now the pain to communicate—the death of this excellent gentleman. He departed this life this morning about ten minutes after 6 o'clock. We understand that at one this morning he was insensible, and continued so till he breathed his last. All men of all parties may well deplore the loss of such a man. He gave dignity to the party of which he was the leader, by the talents he displayed in his public, and by the virtues he exhibited in his private character. Opposed as we have always been to the line of politics which he pursued, we should be ashamed of ourselves if we withheld our acknowledgments of the sincere conviction upon which he always acted. Hence he was not one of those who "to party gave up what was meant for mankind." One of the principal features of his character was liberality. Knowing that he acted from his conviction of what was right, he never failed to allow the same merit to others, however opposite their opinions and their conduct. And therefore, we never heard from him that coarseness of invective, that arrogance of censure, that meanness of suspicion which have been too observable in others.

Fearful and irreparable inroads have been made upon the Opposition within these two years.—Whitbread, Horner, (a man not to be replaced—quodcumque invenies parem?) and now Ponsoby! Mr. Ponsoby was, we believe, between 50 and 60; of a case and frame that promised a much longer life; his countenance was strong and marked. He was called to the Irish bar in 1780; was presented with a silk gown in 1782, and made first counsel to the commissioners of the revenue. He was then brought in to the Irish Parliament. During the administration of lord Grenville he was raised to the chancellorship of Ireland.

JULY 17. We understand that a South American, calling himself an agent for the Republic of Venezuela, is, and has been for some time, in London, endeavoring to induce British officers, in the service of the South American Independents. The terms proposed to commissioned officers, are a rank in the army of the republic equal to what they held in the British service, equal pay from the day of their arrival at Venezuela, and 200 dollars for defraying the expense of their passage and appointments. The sergeants and corporals receive pay from the moment of their embarkation, and have a free passage.—The exertions of this agent have hitherto been, as we understand, very successful, and not many days since a vessel sailed from the river, having on board a very considerable number of these adventurers.

Pedestrianism extraordinary.—On Saturday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, Darby Stevens started on Wormwood Scrubs (on the same ground that Eaton walked, to perform 500 miles in 20 days, backwards. Stevens, who has been for some time in training in the vicinity of Bow, is a stout young man, 25 years of age, and about 5 feet 5 inches in height. tors. The wages were ten to one against him.

Punctuality.—The late Mr. Scott, of Dover, who died a few days ago, travelled on business till about 80 years of age. He was one of the most celebrated characters in the kingdom for punctuality, and by his methodical conduct, joined to uniform diligence, he gradually amassed a large fortune. For a long series of years the proprietor of every inn frequented in Devon and Cornwall knew the day and the very hour he would arrive. Sometime since, a gentleman on journey in Cornwall stopped at a small inn at Port Isaac to dine. The waiter presented him with a bill of fare, which he did not approve of, but observing a duck roasting, "I'll have that," said the traveller. "You cannot, sir," said the landlord, "it is for Mr. Scott, of Dover." "I know Mr. Scott very well," rejoined the gentleman; "he is not in your house."—"True, sir," said the landlord, "but six months ago, when he was here last, he ordered a duck to be ready for him this day precisely at two o'clock," and to the astonishment of the traveller, he saw the old gentleman, on his Rosinante, joggling into the inn yard about five minutes before the appointed time.

Fashionable fair fracas.—On Friday night Miss W., a lady of fortune, was brought up to Marlborough-street office, by Craig and Barton, the officers, charged with annoying Miss K., a lady of fortune also, in the following extraordinary manner:—For a considerable time a gentleman of rank has paid his addresses to the prisoner, and a marriage was agreed upon; but the gentleman happened to see Miss N. the niece of the complainant, who is a very fine young lady; he instantly conceived a violent passion for her, and met an affectionate return. The pride of the prisoner was touched, and she followed Miss N., to her seat in Norfolk, where (it is alleged) she sent her a challenge to meet at a certain time and place, to settle their pretensions in an honorable way. Miss N., however not being a duellist, laid the matter before a neighboring Magistrate, who, finding it impossible to restore amity, held Miss W. in recognizance of 1000, to keep the peace towards Miss N. The parties then came in town, and Miss N. went to live with her aunt, Mrs. K. at F., and the prisoner resided in the neighborhood of Portman-square. Miss N. had occasion to go to Tunbridge Wells, and the prisoner suspecting (it is supposed) that the gentleman was to be her companion, got a postchaise and four, and followed the carriage from stage to stage until they lost one another in the neighborhood of Tunbridge. As soon as she understood her rival had come to town again, she ordered her carriage and drove to Mrs. K.'s, where she was informed Miss N. was not to be seen; she said she would stay all day, and as a proof of her resolution, ordered the horses to be taken from the carriage, which was immediately done by her servants; she was requested several times to go away, but refused, until Mrs. K. applied for the interposition of the police. Accordingly Mr. Baker granted a warrant for her removal, but she would not go with the officers, until they removed her from her carriage into a hackney chaise, which drove them to town. The magistrate ordered the prisoner to put in bail, which she refused, and in default was committed. She is a fine woman about 26 years old.

LONDON, JULY 1.—We received this morning New-York papers to the 5th June, and Boston to the 7th, inclusive. The president is on a tour through the United States. It was said that he wished to make his tour incog. But this the inhabitants of the different towns would not permit, and probably he would have been disappointed if they had. [Courier.]

DIED.

At Rockaway, New-York, on Saturday night, the 23d August, in the 53d year of his age, Mr. JOSEPH GEORGE HOLMAN, tragedian, late manager of the Charleston theatre.

Mr. Holman was a native of England, and a descendant of Sir John Holman, bart. of Warkworth Castle, Banbury. He received the early part of his education at St. John's College, Oxford, and such was the estimation in which he was held, that he received the honors of the university after he became attached to the theatrical corps. While at school he distinguished himself by his scenic exhibitions, and Garrick, who there witnessed his representation of Hamlet, pronounced most favorably of his performance.

His first appearance on a public stage was in the character of Romeo, at Covent Garden Theatre, in 1784; his reception is said to have been in the highest degree flattering, and fully justified the expectations of his friends. He arrived in this country in the fall of 1812, since which time he has uninterruptedly pursued his histrionic career.

The abilities of Mr. Holman as an actor are sufficiently declared by his maintaining a powerful rivalry with Kemble; and his I. I. Towley will long be remembered with admiration by the lovers of the drama in both hemispheres. He was distinguished as a gentleman and a scholar; and by the urbanity of his manners, and the force of his talents, greatly contributed to enhance the character of his profession. The virtues of his heart are known to all with whom he was in habits of intercourse.

The principal of Mr. Holman's writings for the stage were: Abroad and at Home; The Votary of Wealth; What a Murder! Love Gives the Alarm; and The Gazette Extraordinary.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 20. The Board of Health, considering that the season has now arrived, when it is of the utmost consequence that the town should be kept clean; that if filth and impurity of any kind is suffered to remain and accumulate therein, it cannot but be injurious to health; there being but one sentiment prevailing with physicians, respecting the fatal tendency of impure air, and the noxious effluvia arising from animal or vegetable substances; the Board therefore deem it incumbent on them to call the attention of their fellow citizens to the obligation imposed upon every one, by the first and fundamental law of nature, the preservation of health, in order to the preservation of life.

Housekeepers are earnestly entreated to be vigilant, and diligently attentive to have their cellars kept clear of stagnant water, and their back yards sweet and clean, and not to suffer their servants to be gathering impurities of any kind, whether of animal or vegetable matter, to the injury of their own and neighbor's health; and to have the law and sunken places on their premises, containing stagnant water, filled up with good earth. They are also requested, in conformity to the laws of the corporation, to have the gutters in front of their houses daily cleaned; this is certainly a trifling labor, yet, when neglected, of pernicious consequence to the health of those who dwell immediately in front of them; and nothing is more offensive, in passing through the town, than to see the gutters full of filth, rubbish, and stagnant water.

The Board expect the cheerful and prompt co-operation of every good citizen to the foregoing recommendations.

By order of the Board,
JONAH HOMPSON Pres't.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite. Sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.
Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.
The Damask Lip Salve—Restorative Powder for the teeth and gums.
This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness which, suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.
Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication or any other destructive intemperance, the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in &c.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, particularly in New-York Philadelphia Baltimore Petersburg Richmond Norfolk Edenton Wilmington Charleston and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons in each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has under Providence preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.
Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation of various dangerous complaints arising from worms and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.
This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is four or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mild est purgative that can be used on any occasion

Proposals
For publishing, by subscription, an original work, to be entitled
A JOURNAL
OF THE LOSS OF THE BRIG COMMENCE, Of Hartford, (Connecticut) Capt. Riley: of the captivity of Capt. Riley, who was for two months a slave amongst the Arabs; and of the slavery and sufferings of the author for nineteen months among the same people; with accounts of the manners, customs and habits, and a description of the country of the Arabs. By Archibald Robbins.
THE narratives and journals of Travellers, Adventurers, the Shipwrecked and Prisoners, are often told with exaggerations, and not unfrequently condemned as deceiving, rather than informing the world. The author of the proposed Journal is a citizen of Connecticut, and one of the suffering crew of Capt. Riley. He has seen life in a sphere uncommon to his countrymen—he has endured miseries uncommon to human nature. By the blessings of a merciful Providence he has survived to detail his sufferings to the world. If truth will excite astonishment, and even occasion incredulity, he cannot help it: but he is resolved to tell a plain unvarnished tale of extreme suffering—of the manners, customs and habits of the extraordinary people among whom he endured it. He will submit it to the world, hoping that the liberality of the public will, in a small degree, compensate him for his suffering, by reading the tale of it.

TERMS.
I. The work shall constitute a duodecimo volume of about three hundred pages, to be handsomely bound.
II. The price to subscribers will be one dollar, to non-subscribers, $1 54.
III. Those who procure twelve subscribers, and become responsible for the payment, shall have a thirteenth gratis.
Subscription papers to be returned to William S. Marsh, Hartford, by the first day of October next.
Subscriptions received at this Office.
Editors of newspapers who feel interested upon this subject, and who will give these proposals a few insertions, shall be entitled to a copy of the proposed work when published.
